

It's a challenge this year,
To find your Christmas
cheer,
The Jolly Old Geezer, Left something in the freezer.

That was too easy,
So now use your brain,
Your next clue will be,
With this lily-white grain.

I'll give you a break,
This couldn't be clearer,
Find the next clue,
Attached to a mirror.

Retrieve the next clue if you dare
You may need a chair,
Because it's floating
somewhere,
High in the air!

I sure am thirsty,
A drink would be nice,
To wet my whistle,
I'll use this device.

You're getting good now,
But you'd better beware,
Search the dark place
Where monsters hide to scare.
